

Please do NOT succumb to pressure from the private sector to weaken Wisconsin's No Call list rules. The past two years of nearly solicitor-free telephone calls has been wonderful. If I want a company's services or goods, I will contact them. I do NOT want them contacting ME. The fact that nearly 80% of Wisconsin's citizens subscribe to the No Call list should be a CLEAR indicator to the private sector that telemarketing is bad business.